TIRED OUT.

There's many a wife sits in the growing shadows of an evening, knowing what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But if healthy she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. She feels acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves. Sick women, thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I am pleased to inform you of the benefit received from using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mrs. Elizabeth A. Gwold, of 45 Brant Street, Windsor, Essex Co., Ontario, Canada. "Was quite discouraged when I wrote asking your advice, as the physicians here told me I could get no relief except by an operation. Suffered for four years from irregular and profuse menstruation, had sick and nervous headaches most of the time, and I think I never felt better than at present. I had taken the first bottle of the medicine and it was not long before regularity was established and still continues so. Have just finished house-cleaning which I never expected to be able to do again, and can truly say I never felt better than at present. I gladly recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all who suffer from female weakness. It has cured me and made me stronger in every way. Neither my husband nor myself can say enough in its praise."

The selfish seller who urges some substitute is thinking of the larger profit, but not of your best good.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newell's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that makes the scalp healthy, the hair grow luxuriantly. It is a true destroyer of dandruff. Send for a sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

MEETING OF GENERALS.

A dispatch from the headquarters of the Third Japanese army in front of Port Arthur, says: The meeting of Gen. Nogi and Gen. Stoessel Thursday was as undramatic as the conclusion of the siege. It had previously been arranged to take place at noon in the single undamaged house of the village of Suishu. This house was a miserable hovel, called Plum Tree Cottage.

Through a misunderstanding Gen. Stoessel rode out to Port Arthur at 10 o'clock, accompanied by Col. Reiss and two staff officers, to the Japanese lines and missed the Japanese officer delegated to escort him to the meeting place. The general rode there without an escort and was received by a junior officer, who happened to be on the spot. The latter telephoned to Nogi, who hurried his departure from headquarters and arrived at 11 o'clock, accompanied by Maj. Gen. Ijichi, his chief of staff, and Col. Yasuhara, Matsudaira, and Watanabe, staff officers, and M. Kawasari, secretary of the foreign office at Tokio. Gen. Stoessel is a large man of heavy appearance and looks like a good fighter.

When Nogi, looking careworn, entered the compound of the cottage the two generals cordially shook hands, and Nogi, through an interpreter, expressed his pleasure at meeting a general who had fought so bravely and gallantly for his Emperor and country.

Gen. Stoessel thanked Gen. Nogi for the pleasure of meeting the heroic commander of the victorious army. Gen. Nogi explained that he had received a message from his Emperor, asking that the greatest consideration be shown to Gen. Stoessel and his officers in appreciation of their splendid loyalty to their Emperor and country. Because of that wish, he added, the Russian officers would be allowed to wear their swords.

Gen. Stoessel expressed his gratitude to the Japanese Emperor for this saving the honor of his (Stoessel's) family, and said his descendants would appreciate the thoughtful kindness of the Emperor of Japan. The general also expressed the gratitude of his officers, and thanked Nogi for sending the message from Stoessel to Emperor Nicholas, and transmitting his majesty's reply, which read:

"I allow each officer to profit by the reserved privilege to return to Russia under the obligation not to take further part in the present war, or to share the destinies of their men. I thank you and the brave men of the garrison for the gallant defense."

Both generals then mutually praised each other and their officers for their bravery. The conversation afterward turned on the explosion of the mine at Shungshu Mountain fort. General Stoessel said the entire garrison of the fort was killed or made prisoners. The Russian commander greatly praised the Japanese artillery practice, especially the concentrated fire instantaneous with the explosion of Shungshu mine. The gallant deeds of the Japanese infantry, Gen. Stoessel added, spoke for themselves. It was impossible to exaggerate their good qualities. The skillful work of the engineers had also won his admiration.

Continuing, Gen. Stoessel said he had heard that Gen. Nogi had lost both his sons, and praised his loyalty in thus sacrificing his sons, who had died fighting for their Emperor and country. Gen. Nogi smilingly replied: "One of my sons gave his life at Nanshan and the other at 203-Meter Hill. Both of these positions were of the greatest importance to the Japanese army. I am glad that the sacrifice of my sons' lives had been in the capture of such important positions, as I feel the sacrifices were not made in vain. Their lives were nothing compared to the object sought."

Gen. Stoessel then asked permission to present his charger to Gen. Nogi as a token of his appreciation and admiration. Gen. Nogi expressed his thanks for the Russian general's kindness, but said he could not accept the horse, but he continued, he felt that for the army, since he felt that the Russian horses were the property of Japan, and felt he could not make Gen. Stoessel's charger his private property. Gen. Nogi also promised that when the horse was handed over to him to see that it was treated with the greatest kindness out of respect for the brave Russian general.

Thereupon Gen. Stoessel assured Gen. Nogi that he admired his rigorous principles and appreciated his point of view. The Japanese commander requested Gen. Stoessel to continue to occupy his residence at Port Arthur until arrangements were completed for the return of himself and family to Russia. Referring to the burial of the dead, Gen. Nogi said the Japanese since the beginning of the military operations had always buried the Russian dead. Those found later would be interred at a special spot and a suitable memorial would be erected as a tribute to the bravery of the Japanese former foes.

After luncheon, at which both generals sat together, a group photograph was taken at the cottage, and Gen. Stoessel remounted his charger to show the horse's good points, said good-bye to Gen. Nogi, and rode back to Port Arthur.

The quiet and even solemn meeting of the generals ended at about 1 o'clock.

The regular Russian soldiers in Port Arthur marched out Thursday. The only troops now in the city are the volunteers.

Two fires were started in Port Arthur Thursday, for which Gen. Stoessel apologized. He said the volunteers were unable to control the populace, and he desired that the Japanese enter Port Arthur immediately to keep order.

The formal entry of the Japanese army into Port Arthur was fixed for yesterday.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, I tried three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me and I gained 38 pounds. It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

While there is life there is hope.

I was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus G. Shantz, Rahway, N. J.

Cream Balm reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H.

The balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50c etc., or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous Little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., says: "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me." DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by all druggists.
